SISTERHOOD BOOK CLUB

The selection for the next Book Club is "Rules of Civility" by award winning author Amor Towles. The story is set in the late 1930's during the Great Depression. It highlights two roommates in NY looking to find their way up the social ladder. Themes of class struggle, identity, love, betrayal and ultimately choice make this a intriguing read. It is a reminder to all of us that our choices shape our lives, both good and bad.

The discussion is scheduled for Wednesday, January 15th @ 8:00 p.m.

Daf-A-Week @ YIM

SISTERHOOD COAT DRIVE

Once again, YIM is participating in the annual New York Cares Coat Drive, whose goal is to collect over 100,000 coats for New Yorkers in need, especially the homeless. Last year, YIM collected 46 coats in our first drive! All gently used, clean or laundered coats for children and adults are accepted. No gloves or scarves please! Please bring the coats to my house no later than Monday evening, January 13th and please note that if you want a donation receipt, just ask me and I'll get it to you.

If you don't have any coats to give away, or you just want to do something more, you can click on the link below to make a donation to purchase new coats ($20/coat) as part of our YIM Fundraising page. (You can do this anonymously). This way, we will be able to announce the number of coats donated and the total $ raised! And feel free to pass the link on to family or friends.

Thank you,
Marilyn Grossman
