Sisterhood Book Club

This Shabbos afternoon, October 26 at 4:00pm, the YIM Sisterhood Book Club will be reviewing "Little Fires Everywhere" by Celeste Ng at the home of Jeryl Volk. It is an intriguing story that has many twists and turns, keeping you engrossed while it explores themes of race, image, identity, and family. Set in picture-perfect, Shaker Heights, it quickly becomes clear that all is not as it seems when one of the neighborhood's cookie-cutter houses is burned to the ground by an arsonist. Audrey Kurland will be leading the discussion.

Homeland Security Situational Awareness Training

This Tuesday, October 29th at 7:30pm we will have a training session conducted by Nassau County Police Department / Homeland Security regarding Situational Awareness.

Please note the other Security related updates we have recently made:

- Outside lighting has been updated
- Security cameras have been installed and are functional

Reminder – Museum Visit- Sunday, Oct 27 at 1PM

We are confirmed for a group visit to the Museum of Jewish Heritage – A Living Memorial to the Holocaust for a guided tour of the exhibition Auschwitz. Not long ago. Not far away. on 10/27/2019 at 1:00 PM. In this 90-minute tour, an expert Gallery Educator will lead a structured program covering the entire exhibition. Participants will discuss the history of Auschwitz as one of the most significant sites of the Holocaust both at its time of operation and within contemporary North American Holocaust education and memory. The exhibition includes more than 700 original objects and 400 photographs from institutions and museums around the world.

Please note that you should allow enough time for security check-in. If you arrive more than fifteen minutes late, you will forfeit your reservations. Directions to the Museum can be found on our website at: <http://mjhnyc.org/location-directions>. Based on the instructions above, please meet no later than 12:40.

We have 2 additional tickets to the exhibit – If interested, contact Jeryl.

Dr. David Pelcovitz

Shabbat, November 8-9

Dr. David Pelcovitz holds the Gwendolyn and Joseph Straus Chair in Psychology and Jewish Education at the Azrieli Graduate School of Jewish Education and Administration of Yeshiva University. He is also special assistant to President Richard M. Joel. In addition, Dr. Pelcovitz is an instructor in pastoral counseling at the Rabbi Isaac Elchanan Theological Seminary.

Serving for more than two decades as director of psychology at North Shore University Hospital-NYU School of Medicine and clinical professor of psychology at NYU School of Medicine, Dr. Pelcovitz has consulted extensively with the Jewish community in the United States, Europe and Israel on a wide range of issues facing children and adolescents.

Dr. Pelcovitz, who received his PhD from the University of Pennsylvania, has published and lectured extensively on a variety of topics related to education, parenting and child mental health. Areas of research and clinical specialty include family violence, the impact of domestic violence, stress management, transmitting values to children and adolescents and coping with trauma and loss.

This Shabbat is generously sponsored by the Daitch Family in memory of Harold Daitch, Tzvi ben Shmaryahu by the Young Israel of Merrick, and by the Rabbi Jeremiah Wohlberg Institute for Adult Jewish Studies at Ohav Sholom.
