Important Shul Update
We are excited to announce that we are going to be placing a Hebrew phrase above the Aron in the shul. Many shuls have something on top of the Aron and this serves as a type of reminder or a “motto” for the community.
We are deciding between two potential options:
"דע לפני מי אתה עומד"
Know before Whom you stand or
"כל ישראל ערבים זה לזה"
We all have to look out for one another
Please let Rabbi Winston know if you have any thoughts or a preference.

A note from Karmen and Rebecca Katz

Thank you so much to everyone for the warm reception when we visited this past month. It was wonderful to see everyone who was in synagogue that Shabbos. Rebecca was happy to meet the YIM community.

May we continue to share joyous celebrations together in the future. And let us not wait another ten years plus, to meet again.

Young Israel of Merrick Summer Beit Midrash

EXPLORATIONS IN SEFER IVOV
 Note: One of the most complex books in the Torah is Sefer Shemot. It is a treasure trove of theological questions: "What is it all about? Why did they happen? What is the purpose of the journey? How do we survive through the wilderness?"
